10am-12pm (followed by a lunch till 1pm)

Europe House, 32 Smith Square, London SW1P 3EU

For International Women's Day, NAWO in collaboration with Europe House invites you to attend

A Women's Place is Europe

This FREE event, which includes a strong line up of female speakers, will discuss with an audience what Europe has done, is doing or should be doing to improve gender equality- particularly in the work place and on the issue of equal pay - as we approach the 101st anniversary of International Women's Day.

Speakers include:

- Mary Honeyball (Labour MEP for London/ Labour spokesperson on the Women's Rights and Gender Equality Committee)
- Marina Yannakoudakis (Conservative MEP for London / Conservative spokesperson on the Women's Rights and Gender Equality Committee)
- Emma Reynolds (Shadow Europe Minister)
- Heather McGregor (Head of international recruitment consultants TaylorBennett and author of the Mrs Moneypenny column in the Financial Times).
- Female European Commissioner tbc
- Moderator: female broadcaster tbc
